

IN THE SHOW

'Curator Wanda Locke suggests that the 'Made by Hand' exhibit can be likened to a cabinet of curiosities...can you see any evidence that might indicate this?

'Artisan' is defined only as someone who makes things with his or her hands. That's all. Therefore, by that definition, pretty much all artists are artisans. However, not all artisans are 'artists'... 'An artist' is a person who performs any of the creative arts. This can range from painting to music. An artisan, on the other hand, is a skilled worker who makes things by hand'.

Diane Gossens Mid Reno Blues, Felt Collective

Questions to consider:

Given the definitions of Artist and Artisan, look for pieces of work that you consider made by an artist/artisan. What guides you? What are the differences and likenesses? What are you used to seeing in public galleries? Why or why not?

DELVING IN

Questions to consider:

Look for a piece that speaks to you. Why? Is it the form? Colour? Craftsmanship? Does it make you wonder or feel uncomfortable?

Artist: Rose Braun

Why is this wedding made of paper? .Wait...it has writing on it...what does it say? What does the chock(her) do to you? Might someone have a visceral response? Could there be an intended message? Is the bicycle basket evoke any response in you, other than wondering if one would fit on your bike? What do you imagine the intention was in the weaving of the basket?

"I get quite immersed and forget about what's going on around me. I can work tirelessly for I can say up to 12 hours."

Reflect

How has this exhibition changed you or your point of view, what curiosities could you investigate?

"I don't really like to be labelled as either (an artisan or an artist). I don't feel we need labels. I just absolutely love it!" Robin Scott
